LATE ELECTION RETURNS

FIGHT FOR MAYOR IS FEATURE OF ELECTION

Last Few Tallies In Last Precinct To Be Heard From Decide Battle Of Ballots Against Lane and For J. Fern

Twenty-seven Republicans elected out of a total of thirty-one nominations.

A decisive blow at the sinister Democratic campaign political machine that has been built up in the past few years to control every office in the county.

A stinging rebuke to Boss McCandless and the complete vindication of Delegate Kuhio. The retiring from public life, at least as Treasurer of Oahu county, of "Deacon" Trent as a direct result of his political allegiance to the Democratic Boss.

These are the results of the election held over the Territory of Hawaii and the county of Oahu yesterday.

The Democrats have elected Mayor Fern by a majority of fifty-two over John C. Lane, Republican. They have also retained William P. Jarrett in the Sheriff's office by a much larger margin. They have put W. H. McClellan back on the Board of Supervisors, defeating Jim Quinn in the process. The fourth of the quartet of Bourbon winners is Deputy Sheriff Charles H. Rose, who was helped into a re-election by the strength of his chief.

Kuhio has swept this island by a big majority, gaining more than two thousand votes over McCandless since the election two years ago. Chas. K. Nottley, leader of the Home Rule party, is nowhere, and in fact the whole Home Rule wing is practically destroyed, if the results of yesterday's election are an evidence. Nottley ran far behind his vote of two years ago.

Kuhio's vote was so overwhelming that interest was taken out of the Delegates' fight early last evening, for his success was sure. It shifted to the battle of ballots between the rival candidates for Mayor, and as was the case two years ago, the mayoralty contest brought out the bitterest struggle of the day.

The defeat of the Republican candidate, John C. Lane, is ascribed to the splitting of tickets in precincts of the Fourth District that should have stood by him. Lane was badly scratched in the Fifth of the Fourth, where he got a big majority two years ago. Had the Fifth gone down the line

DEMOCRATS WILL CONTROL HOUSE AND SENATE IS CLOSE

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The Democrats in the elections of yesterday elected two hundred and twenty-one Congressmen, and the Republicans one hundred and fifty-seven. The Socialists elect one, and twelve districts are still in the doubtful column.

The returns give the Democrats a working majority in the sixty-second Congress of twenty-four, they having gained forty-nine seats.

The Senate is very close and will probably have a Republican majority of one.

California, Nevada and Washington have been carried by the Republicans.

Idaho and Montana are in the doubtful column.

The Indiana Legislature will be Democratic by a small majority. This Legislature will elect a successor to Senator Beveridge.

The Legislatures of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania are Republican.

The Missouri Legislature is probably Democratic.

for him he would have been elected.

Not until noon today was the final result of the county election known. Counting tickets was exceptionally slow, and one precinct, the Fourteenth of the Fifth, took so long to count that the entire ticket was uncertain.

Fern finally won this precinct and it was sufficient to give him a majority of fifty-two votes.

Other features of the election were the heavy votes polled by Robert W. Shingle for Treasurer, and John W. Cathcart, for City Attorney. Both of these men have been singled out
